NARRATIVE:

Strong has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21 and includes convictions for possession of controlled substance paraphernalia, DUI, false personation, vehicle theft, possession of controlled substance, prostitution with prior AIDS, multiple assault on spouse / co-habitant, terrorists threats, suspended license, possession of marijuana, vandalism, false identification to peace officer and receiving stolen property . Strong has served multiple state prison terms, recently serving a 16-month term for false personation. Strong was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 21, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2013 after Strong absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Strong qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for false personation is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Strong is a member of the "Pomona Mafia Crip Gang". His prior criminal history, gang membership and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted.
